

Fortnightly: 17th April 2020

Hello Ladies, we've made it to the second edition and it's down to your support, encouragement, feedback and contribution. Thank you everyone!!

Beginning with WI update news, the Get Crafty refunds should now be received via bank transfer to respective members.

The weather has been very kind to us and encouraged many to explore the village and surrounding area.

It has been a real tonic getting outdoors and chatting with people, safely of course, all clearly embracing the quieter time we find ourselves in. We are not the only ones benefiting from the fresh air, our dogs have never had so much exercise!

“No, I’m not coming down... I’ve been walked by everyone in this village today!”

One of our members enjoyed a walk passing Crockwell Farm and shared a memory...

‘I was walking back home in the sunshine by Crockwell Farm when a car passed, the number plate year was 10. Just behind came another car with year 11. I was immediately transported back to when I was 14 and a geography lesson. The quiet classroom was on the first floor so we frequently looked across the road. Suddenly someone squealed ‘There’s number 5’. The teacher was speechless, not understanding, but we did – it was plate spotting. We all received a stern lecture and carried on learning – about what, I cannot remember! And yes, the next car to go by was coincidentally plate number 12’

It has been lovely to hear from members filling us in on their new day. Gisella is now buried deep with house tidying whilst maintaining order of four adults who are now in 24 hr residence. Judging by things, unless they quickly tidy away, you will be able to purchase various carefully bagged up items from a charity shop nearby!

Now, it wouldn't be right to not include an article on gardening, especially when they are looking so fabulous. Anita is learning about being in a queue online (!) to order yet MORE seeds from Sutton's and Irene is most keen to explain to everyone how her new automatic opening windows in her greenhouse works 😊. However, when we need reminding on how to do our gardening with panache, who else can you ask but Jean who is celebrating April so beautifully....

Does anyone know a good home for soft toys and old spectacles?

Does anyone have any 'idiot' recipes for a first-time soup maker?

Gisella is kindly offering to put some shopping in her trolley for those that are self-isolating – please contact her direct.

For those that are more familiar with IT matters, the word Zoom is very current. It is one of the safer to use mediums to keep in touch with video link. It is easy to sign up to and involves sending a link to your friends and they just click it at the time you have set for a virtual get together. You can use it free for 40 mins (though they have extended this to unlimited in the current circumstances).

We received some very exciting news from a very proud Jan W who has become a great grandmother to Marley Ava. She managed to squeeze in a quick cuddle before lockdown and is now enjoying watching daily updates on facetime. Congratulations to the family 🍀.

It costs nothing but creates much. It enriches those who receive without impoverishing those who give. It happens in a flash and the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None are so rich that they can get along without it and none so poor but are richer for its benefits. It is rest to the weary, daylight to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad and nature's antidote for trouble. Yet it cannot be brought, begged, borrowed or stolen, for it is something that is no earthly good to anybody until it is given away.....a smile.
